

Chief Financial Officer

Accounting & Finance

Shawnee, Oklahoma Direct Hire Apr 18, 2022

Are you a strong Finance and Treasury leader looking for an exciting opportunity to join an organization where you can truly make an impact on the business' future success? We are partnering with a global leader who delivers the most sophisticated metal surface technology improvements for heat transfer solutions in today's marketplace! They are proud to offer custom-engineered components providing a thermal management solution for multiple markets. This organization is redefining itself into an outstanding manufacturing company passionate about challenging the status quo, collaborating for success, implementing change and using technology and innovation to its fullest.

A key to their ongoing transformation will be a Chief Financial Officer (CFO) to join their leadership team located in Shawnee, Oklahoma. Shawnee is approximately 30 miles east of Oklahoma City. Reporting directly to the CEO & President, the CFO will provide strategic financial leadership for the organization while partnering with senior management. In addition, they will lead all aspects of treasury and funding activities to provide adequate working capital to support the organization's growth and strategic business plans. Additional responsibilities include:

- Champion and own all relationships with financial institutions to ensure accurate partnerships are in place and monetary resources are available.
- Collaborate with Operations on trend analysis and cost reduction initiatives
- Responsible for internal controls (plant, operations, sales and finance) to ensure assets are adequately safeguarded and results are accurately reported
- Lead all aspects of preparation of appropriate financial reports to share results, monthly forecasts, annual operating plans and key planning while analyzing and making strategic financial recommendations.
- Maintain a perpetual inventory for finished goods and reconcile this perpetual to production, shipping and returns daily and review labor reporting and cost, material costs, manufacturing overhead, distribution cost, returns and inventory levels

A successful candidate would have at least 10 years of previous experience in multifaceted finance and accounting roles in an industrial manufacturing environment. Professional designations such as CPA, CMA or CGA would be strongly preferred. It would also be especially advantageous for the individual to have proven track record to perform financial modeling and accounting activities for the Company's planning and analysis process and shareholder reporting experience.

If needed, there is a full relocation package available for the selected candidate to relocate to Shawnee, Oklahoma. If unable fully relocate, then the individual must be flexible to travel between Shawnee and your home base on a weekly basis. This organization has an excellent benefit package to include medical, dental, and retirement plans to just name a few. We hope you are intrigued about this potential career move and will be applying, so we can gain more insight into your professional background!
